THE ENTERTAINMENT ALCHEMIST

A MULTIDISCIPLINARY ENTERTAINER

Septimius The Great, known as The Entertainment Alchemist, is a multidisciplinary entertainer and creative entrepreneur whose work moves across music, film and television, fashion, pageantry, publishing, and live events. Bringing a performer's instinct together with a producer's vision and a designer's eye, he develops projects that connect culture, style, and storytelling.

His creative portfolio includes original music and cross-cultural collaborations, screen projects, the Septimius Couture menswear concept, international fashion and pageant appearances, and hosting and performance engagements. His work is unified by an expansive creative point of view and the personal motto, A Dream Without Fear.
